5 Popular Songs,

By America's Popular Ballad Singer & Song Writer,

JAMES G. CLARKE.

Who is acknowledged by the Press and Public to be the sweetest Ballad Singer in this country.—His music is sung in thousands and tens of thousands of homes throughout the land.

Among the latest and most popular of his pieces are the following:

When the Mists have Rolled Away

When the mists have rolled away
From the beauty of the hills,
And the sunshine, warm and tender,
Falls in kisses on the roses,
We may read love's shining letter
In the rainbow of the sky.
We shall know each other better
When the mists have rolled away.

Two.—We shall know, as we are known,
Never more to walk alone,
In the dawning of the morning
When the mists have rolled away.

NOWHERE TO GO.

A TEMPERANCE SONG.

Homeless to-night, with no one to pity;
Wary of living, and dying with woe;
Homeless to-night in the heart of the city,
Freezing and starving, yet nowhere to go.
Bright was the home he built to receive me; I knew
True was the heart that would not let nothing else free;
Clear was the eyes, and tender and loving,
Yet I am perishing here in the snow.

Two.—Homeless to-night, nowhere to go,
Freezing and starving, yet nowhere to go;
Homeless to-night, nowhere to go;
Yet I am perishing here in the snow.

THE TWO VILLAGES.

(DUET).

Over the river, on the hill,
Lies a village, white and still;
All around it the forest trees,
Whisper and shiver in the breeze.
Over it sailing shadows pass,
Of soaring hawk and screaming crow,
And mountain gull, low and sweet,
Glow in the middle of every star.

TENDER AND TRUE.

SONG AND CHORUS.

Tender and true as the stars to the ocean,
Watching all night with the desolate sea,
So in my heart the bright star of devotion
Constant and pure love rises to thee.
Ever the stars shine with patient bearing
Back to the smile of the heavens so blue,
Ever thy life is his—tender and true.
Tender and true as the stars to the sea.

Soft as the sunlight that gleams on the billow,
Bright as the light that shines on the willow,
Love, like an angel shall watch over thy pillow
Love shall enfold thee, tender and true.

OREANA.

(DUET AND CHORUS).

The moon is on the sea, OREANA,
I'm dreaming still of thee OREANA;
The stars are in the skies,
But I'm thinking of the eyes
That were more than all the stars to me,
That I met thee OREANA.
When life's evening shadows meet eternal day?
Will thou know me OREANA?
In that morning light that never turns to gray?
OREANA, OREANA.
